(a) Determine whether or not there will be an overall saving of tax and national insurance contributions (NIC) for the year ended 5 April 2026 if Sarah incorporates her business on 6 April 2025.

Notes:

1. You are expected to calculate the income tax payable by Sarah, the class 1 NIC payable by Sarah and the new limited company, and the corporation tax liability of the new limited company for the year ended 5 April 2026.
2. The new limited company will not be entitled to the NIC annual employment allowance.
3. You should assume that the rates of corporation tax remain unchanged.
